

OPEN DUTCH 2012

22ND OF JANUARY

Be there with the Champs, this year with team-sparring!

A NEW NAME AND A NEW HALL....

This year we changed the name from Open Brabant to the Open Dutch Championships. This on request of several country's to get more support from their goverment. Why not, same tournament with only another name in a new hall.

OPEN DUTCH 2012

In the 2011 edition there where 520 competitors from 11 different nations present.

This year we add the team-sparring A-class seniors.

Also we changed again the hall, we have now a very big hall with a big tribune for all the spectators. They have a overview over the whole hall.

The location from the sportshall in the place Best is very close to Eindhoven airport, 7,5 km.

With this all we hope to give more service to spectators and competitors.

We got already confermation from several winners from the last edition to be present at this Dutch Open 2012.

We hope too see you all at the 22nd of January 2012.

In name of the organising committee,
